

View this in your browser.

Members Update 2024 | Issue 8

Do you have any suggestions on what to share with members? Email us at: info@wide-network.org.

Transnational Capacity Building events in Sofia, Bulgaria, 5-7 June 2024

Gender and Climate Justice

Last week, from 5 to 7 June, project partner and WIDE+ members Center for Sustainable Communities Development (CSCD) hosted the second transnational training of the COPGendered project in Sofia, Bulgaria.

WIDE+ members and project partners from Austria, Germany, Denmark, Spain, and Sweden gathered with local civil society organisations and activists in intensive capacity-building activities, including a field visit, methodological exercises, workshops, presentations and discussions on the intersection between gender and climate justice.

The capacity building event that was held on 6 June and focused on how to learn in groups about the interrelationships between climate justice and intersectional gendered discrimination. A public event was organised to present the Climate and Gender Justice briefing papers on 7 June.

The COPGendered project is an Erasmus+ project financially supported by the European Union.

GADIP Gender and Climate Justice Conference report available

The second Conference Report that is part of the COPGendered project that WIDE+ is coordinating, is published.

Organised by GADIP, the conference, entitled Gender and Climate Change:

Understanding their Interconnection, was held on 19 January 2024 and focused on the gendered impacts of climate change, and how and why gender perspectives are crucial regarding its effects and their mitigation.

Project partners KULU - Women and Development and Mundubat participated alongside representatives from the adult educational sector.

Access the Conference Report here.

FINDHR Masterclass on anti-discrimination in online hiring

On 25 October 2024, FINDHR will be hosting the first edition of a 3-hour masterclass on algorithms in recruitment. The masterclass will be held in presence in Amsterdam and is dedicated to senior product managers and developers, upper management and senior human resources staff, senior civil society representatives fighting discrimination, auditing, and regulatory institutions.

Key concepts, frameworks and standards for anti-discrimination in algorithmic hiring will be explored in both theoretical sessions and case studies.

Participation is free of charge. The masterclass is fully funded by Horizon Europe under the FINDHR project, of which WIDE+ is a partner.

Register here 📄 Please note: participation is subject to approval.

For further information about the project and its courses: <https://findhr.eu/>.

Members and Partners News

IW*S: "We will not be silenced, we will not be intimidated, and we will not be complicit in our own oppression."

On 25 May 2024, WIDE+ member International Women* Space held a speech at the African Liberation Day gathering in Görlitzer Park, Berlin, in honour of the African ancestors who fought for Africa's liberation.

"The struggle for Black Liberation in Africa is interconnected with global movements for racial and social justice. Building alliances with like-minded movements worldwide strengthens our collective power. Black Liberation demands that we confront the legacies of colonization, challenge ongoing exploitation, and stand firm against climate injustice. It calls for solidarity, resilience, and unwavering commitment to justice and equity."

Read the full speech here.

KULU - Women and Development is organising a debate on politics and migrant women

On 14 June, KULU - Women and Development will host a "debate-café" on migrant women's political participation in Denmark.

Moderated by Khatarah Parwani - debater and Director of the Danish organisation LØFT -, the afternoon will be filled with talks, workshops, debates, and a communal dinner to round the day off. Panellists include city council members from Greater Copenhagen and civil society representatives.

The event will take place from 14.30 to 19.30 at the cultural center Union in Copenhagen.

Click here to register and to read the invitation in Danish.

The debate-café is co-organised with Babaylan Denmark and is a multiplier event for the We-Empower project.

KOM TIL DEBATCAFÉ D. 14 JUNI:

Politik er for alle: Også for kvinder med minoritetsbaggrund?

General News

New publication: Building Caring Economies as a Pathway to economic and gender justice

CARE International has published a joint report with the Cherie Blair Foundation for Women. The report highlights how and why governments and decision-makers should invest in building caring economies to achieve gender and economic justice globally.

Access the report and executive summary here.

New publication: Voices of strength: Contributions of Palestinian women-led organizations to the humanitarian response in the Occupied Palestinian Territory

Unsubscribe | Manage your subscription
WIDE+, Women In Development Europe+

