Exciting News:

Launch of the WE-EMPOWER Treasure Box!

We are happy to share that the website is now fully functioning! When we previously shared the launch of the WE-EMPOWER Treasure Box with you, some links on the website were unfortunately not working due to some unforeseen technical issues, which have now been fixed. Enjoy the treasures!

We are thrilled to announce the launch of the WE-EMPOWER Treasure Box, an innovative online resource designed to empower migrant women and enhance their participation in political and democratic life across Europe!

What is the Treasure Box?

The Treasure Box is a curated collection of non-formal educational materials, communication tools, and impactful messages developed by our partner organisations. Just as a treasure chest holds valuable riches, the WE-EMPOWER Treasure Box is filled with resources to help migrant women overcome barriers to civic participation and engage actively in decision-making processes.

What's Inside?

The Treasure Box offers a diverse range of engaging formats, including:

- Podcasts with inspiring stories and discussions from migrant women and advocates.
- Videos to explore visual narratives that highlight challenges and successes in the journey toward empowerment.
- Presentations containing informative slideshows that cover essential topics related to political engagement.

- Documentaries that depict the realities faced by migrant women in Europe.
- Action Guides, i.e. practical resources to help you advocate for your rights and the rights of others.
- Activism to discover creative initiatives that blend art and activism to promote social change.

Why Engage with the Treasure Box?

Our aim is to provide easy access to valuable resources that resonate with migrant women, fostering inclusion in democratic processes through creative and appealing methods. The Treasure Box is not just a static collection; it will be continuously updated with new materials and resources to keep you informed and inspired.

"Gender Backlash 3" Conference

On April 29, 2022, GADIP hosted the "Gender Backlash 3" conference in Göteborg, with insightful discussions available in multiple languages. Key presentations included ILGA Europe's strategies for building an inclusive feminist movement and compelling stories on mobilising for abortion rights in Ireland and Argentina.

Recordings of these sessions are now available, providing an opportunity to revisit and engage with the discussions at your own pace.

"Women on the Move"

As part of the "Pippi of Today" project, Atina and Save the Children Sweden present a short documentary featuring Katya, a member of Atina's refugee-led advocacy group. Fleeing Burundi and seeking refuge in Serbia, Katya shares her journey and the pivotal role access to education has played in her integration into Serbian society.

This documentary serves as an essential tool for promoting migrant rights by humanising the experiences of migrant women and for raising awareness about access to resources, fostering empathy and understanding.
