International Conference on 5 June, 13.30-17.00: “Global Financing for Gender and Climate Justice: Utopia or Reality? A feminist reflection”

This in-person conference will reflect on the current political landscape in Europe of an ongoing rollback of funding for climate justice and gender equality. This political development also seems to strengthen market- and technology-driven approaches offered as the panacea of climate change. It will also discuss the main challenges and opportunities for feminist and climate justice activists to not only halt this development but also transform it for a sustainable future.

The event starts at 13.30 PM and ends at 17.00. The programme will include brief presentations of the COPGendered project outcomes, the E-learning Modules and Trainers Hub, a Group Discussion and a plenary panel session.

International Workshop on 6 June, 9:30-17:30: “Gender and Climate Justice: A European feminist dialogue to explore future action”

This workshop combines practising methodologies for group work with actual debates by key experts on the current state of affairs for gender and climate justice policy in Europe and the role of women activism in promoting transformative change. The programme starts at 9:30 AM and lasts until 17:30.

The workshop includes the following panel discussions and methodology activities:

Morning Panel: “The future of the Gender and Climate Justice Agenda in Europe”

This panel will focus on the political shifts among the European Union institutions, including the trend of far-right governments coming into power in member states. And it will give insight into several current policy debates as a steppingstone for recommendations towards systemic change.

Afternoon Panel: “The future of the Gender and Climate Justice Mobilization in Europe”

In this panel, we will delve deeper and highlight the experience of gender and climate justice activists. Topics that we will address are: Extractivism in Europe and beyond and gender-based violence, climate activism from the perspective of a young woman in digital spaces, international feminist climate action from a refugee experience, and feminist collaboration on climate impacts in Europe and Africa.

Presentation and Practice of methodologies

- Gender and Climate Bingo, moderated by Nancy Contreras and Allis Millegård, representatives @GADIP: on inclusive engagement in discussions, reflection, critical thinking and participation
- Climate Bet, moderated by Susanne Wolf-Eberl and Eveline Braun @WIMEN: on ecological knowledge and/or eco-friendly behaviour based on the concepts of competition and contract
- Body Mapping: Connecting Experiences with Climate Change, moderated by Elena Georgiadi @LIFE e.V.: on the connection between personal bodily experiences and climate change
- Hunting for fake news on Climate Change and Women’s rights, moderated by Nancy Borisova and Stanimira Hadjimitova @CSCD: on fake news to expose it concerning climate change and

women's rights

About COPGendered

The project builds up tools, knowledge and methodologies for learners to upskill themselves (in groups, individually or with a teacher) in the relationships between gender inequality and the climate crisis. This includes providing tools for adult education providers. The project which lasts for three years ends in November 2025.

The consortium for this project consists of seven organisations, with WIDE+ as coordinator. Six partners are WIDE+ member organisations, WIDE in Austria, GADIP in Sweden, KULU Women and Development in Denmark, Mundubat in Spain and CSCD in Bulgaria. coupled with partner LIFE e.V (previously GenderCC). The associations involved are: WIDE+ (Europe), GenderCC/Life e.V in Germany,

This activity is funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or European Commission. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them.
